

A A home in Brunswick, Maryland.

Q And that is on North Virginia Avenue?

A North Virginia Avenue, corner of B Street.

Q And what do you say about the condition of the property?

A Well, the inside - we had someone look at it, and they said the floors and plastering is pretty good, but it needs some repairs.

Q Needs some painting and fixing up on the outside, I guess?

A Yes.

Q What would you say the property is worth?

A Well, we would like to get as much as we could for it, but I don't know what it is really worth.

Q Have you heard any valuations put on it?

A Well, we were told - it was a contractor who hadn't looked at it so good, and he said we ought to get $7,000. I wouldn't know whether we could get that much.

Q He was looking at the property?

A He didn't look inside or anything, but the location and all.

Q And Miss Ella's condition is--

A Well, her memory is - she is back about 30 years. Talks about her grandmother all the time.

MRS. AUDREY E. HARRINGTON, a witness for the Petitioner, being first duly sworn, de-
poses and says:

By Mr. DeLauter:

Q Your full name?

A Audrey E. Harrington.

Q You are a niece of Miss Ella also?

A Yes, second oldest niece.

Q And whose daughters are you all?
